To Kill a Mockingbird - FINAL PROJECTS

Choose one project from the list below to complete as a final project for To Kill a Mockingbird. In order to receive full credit, your work must be completed in full and must show complete and total effort.

1. Boo’s Diary: You may use drawings you invent, pictures you cut from magazines, small objects, or simply write the entries. What do you think he is thinking as he goes through the events of the story and his part of the plot? How does he see those events? How does he see the children? What does he think is happening? How can you show what he thinks is happening without words? In order to complete this project you must infer about Boo, and the inference must be accurate to the novel. Think about how Harper Lee portrays Boo Radley. What times does she show up in the novel. How does he act throughout the novel. Diary must have 7 entries. (If you choose a partner for this you must double the entries [14])

2. Music: Make an album playlist of at least 7 songs that represent the themes/symbols/characters/events in the story. You must also make cover art for your CD that also illustrates a major theme, symbol, or image of the novel. (If you check goodwill or consignment shops, you can find vinyl albums for .25 a piece; you can also ask your parents/grandparents if they have any they’d like to be rid of). You must include the following: lyrics for every song, the title of the song, a paragraph (analytical summary) explaining the significance of the songs (7) and how they connect to the novel.

3. Design a board game: Make a board game that deals with the theme and characters of the novel. You must address the themes of Prejudice and Growing Up, specifically, but you may also reveal other themes from the novel. You must play a section of the game in class as your presentation. On a separate sheet of paper, write out the rules of the game and how it relates to Prejudice and Growing Up.

4. Artistic Representation Choose one (1) of the following artistic options below:
   1. Pictoral Representation: You will choose one quote or passage from the novel and paint or watercolor representation of that quote. Your picture does not necessarily have to be a concrete rendering of the quote, but it must capture the mood and emotion of the quote. Your quote will be part of the final picture, so paint accordingly.
   2. Life’s Book: Create a version of Life’s Instruction Booklet based upon To Kill A Mockingbird. Atticus and other characters in the novel offer several bits of advice that are helpful in deciding how people should live life. Your job would be to compile at least fifteen (15) quotes form the novel and five (5) quotes from outside of the novel which share meaningful advice or wisdom about life. Include illustrations for each quote. Each quote will comprise a separate page of the instruction booklet. You will also write an essay of at least two paragraphs explaining the value and importance of well-spoken advice as it applies to individuals and society

5. Scout’s Scrapbook: Compile a scrapbook of memorabilia that Scout might have collected or come across during the novel. All artifacts must include a caption with where she got it and its significance to her. You should have at least ten pieces of memorabilia. (If you work with a partner, you must double the assignment: 20 pieces of memorabilia.)
6. Movie- you may work in a group of no more than 4 people (depending on the scene from the book) and create a movie based on a scene from the novel. You must run the idea by me before you “shoot” the movie.

7. Build-a- set- You may work with one other person for this assignment. You are to build Maycomb county, the Finch’s, the Radley’s house, Mrs. Dubose’s house, the Black Community, the Ewell’s, or a place/set of your choosing. You must get the “okay” from me before you build anything.

8. Choose your own: Choose your own way to represent your understanding of Maycomb. Suggest must be approved in advance

Projects are due no later than May 11, 2018
